Eve Lambert is the pseudonym of a successful German writer. Just like her eponymous heroine, Jackie Dupont, she was born to travel: Born in Tessin in 1979, she grew up in Hamburg, Italy and Great Britain and now lives again in Hamburg. When she happens to be not writing she works as a tourist guide, showing the hanseatic city to visitors from all over the world.

Monaco 1920: The attractive English aristocrat, Christopher, is at a party on board a classy yacht. The guests are dancing to the music of a jazz band, drinking Champagne – and then suddenly a body is found and a valuable diamond necklace has disappeared without trace.

The police call Jackie Dupont in to help them, the private detective with a preference for glamorous evening dresses, fast cars and unusual methods of investigation. One of the guests must be the murderer, and so Christopher is also under suspicion. And indeed, he is hiding a sinister secret ...
