

Enjoying peonies with all the senses

Christa Brand, Kathrin Hofmeister

Peonies

[Pfingstrosen]

The glory of roses—without thorns

Deutsche Verlags-Anstalt

144 pages

177 colour illustrations

Format 19,5 x 21,0 cm

March 2014

With ca. 250 4-c illustrations

Kathrin Hofmeister completed her training as a gardener in the Weihenstephan perennial display garden and her studies in cultural management at the Universität Passau. She writes for leading garden magazines and has published several books on garden design.

The photographer Christa Brand has made garden photography her speciality. Her photographs appear in leading German gardening magazines and in numerous books and calendars.

The book is dedicated to the fascinating colors and formal variety of one of the favorite flowers of all gardeners. Its impressive images and entertaining texts about the peony are given additional liveliness through a concrete example (Päoniengarten Müller, Höllberg). Tried and true design recommendations for many different gardening situations are discussed in detail. The package is topped off by the most important practical tips.

- Loved by hobby gardeners and professional florists
- More than 100 peonies are illustrated, 44 of them with extensive portrait and profile
- A perfection of floral photography
- Target group: garden owners, landscape architects, and lovers of garden art

Also available:

My Urban Garden Diary, 2013

The Ever-Beautiful Garden, 2011

A Garden to Live in, 2011

La Dolce Vita!, 2006

The Modern Perennial Garden, 2009

365 of the Most Beautiful Fragrant Herbs, Blooms and Roses, 2008