Cynthia Barcomi, born in Seattle, started happily baking as a child. Even after her training as a dancer, she still never forgot her baking passion. After successful years as a dancer, she established a party and catering service with American specialties in her new home of Berlin. In 1994 she opened her Barcomi's Coffee Roasting Company and in 1997 Barcomi's Deli in downtown Berlin. Both stores have long achieved a cult status.
