Claire, brought up on the fullness of ancient, esoteric customs, became interested in the spiritual power of white magic very early on in life. Today, this life counsellor and practicing witch is one of the most successful authors on the theme of magic. Numerous television appearances have made her known beyond the borders of Germany.

Magic can be practiced everywhere – even in an urban environment. The witch Claire shows how to discover the city as a place of power and to use its hidden energies.

With numerous practical tips, recipes, and rituals, Claire inspires us to develop our own magical style in accord with our individual living situation in the midst of the big city jungle.

- With numerous rituals for indoors and outdoors, and a magical city-plant guide
