Dr. Valentino Hribernig-Körper, born in 1966, studied Catholic theology and technical mathematics. He is now a software technician for the city of Vienna, at present a project and process manager. He has been active in Catholic adult education for many years, regularly holds lectures on a wide range of subjects and lives in Vienna.

2000 years of history, 2000 years of fascination: the Catholic Church from its beginnings right up to the present day, including all its many facets. Its structures, customs, rites and doctrines are presented in a clear and accessible manner. In addition, there is a comprehensive and brief outline of the Church's history. A beautifully illustrated book which covers everything you need to know about the Catholic faith.

This new edition includes the changes and alterations that Pope Francis has implemented.
