Patricia Schröder was born in northern Germany in 1960 and grew up in Düsseldorf. She studied textile design and worked as a designer for several years. When her children were born she returned to the north, where she moved to a small ancient dwelling mound with her family and a handful of animals, and started thinking up stories. She is particularly committed to the promotion of children's literacy, and to this end developed the 'Let's Read Together' series, aimed at helping children to discover how much fun it can be to read books and stories by themselves.

The Concept

On each double page, a more difficult passage for adults to read to children contains a paragraph for early readers to master alone – with easy words and a simple sentence structure. Taking turns to read aloud makes for a varied and enthralling story. Each book is opulently illustrated.

Volume 15

Sophie wondrously finds herself in Fairy Land, where she makes the acquaintance of Pearleye, the magic pony. From him she discovers that it was not by chance that she was spirited away to this sparkly wonder world, for Fairy Land is in danger! The magic ponies, fairies and elves living here are in danger of losing their magic powers and nobody knows why this is happening. Can Sophie solve the mystery?
