Patricia Schröder was born in northern Germany in 1960 and grew up in Düsseldorf. She studied textile design and worked as a designer for several years. When her children were born she returned to the north, where she moved to a small ancient dwelling mound with her family and a handful of animals, and started thinking up stories. She is particularly committed to the promotion of children's literacy, and to this end developed the 'Let's Read Together' series, aimed at helping children to discover how much fun it can be to read books and stories by themselves.

Linus, the human boy, and dragon child Fumo are the best of friends, but when it comes to the big contest in melting away mountain tops, their friendship is put to a tough test – Linus says that Fumo is super good at spitting fire. Yet everyone knows that all that drips out of Fumo's nose is nothing but red sauce. When Linus is in danger, Fumo suddenly arises above himself...
