Ingo Siegner, born in 1965, studied history and French, and spent two years in France as an au pair and as a student. He also trained as a bank clerk. He is an autodidact who always carries his paints with him. He has been writing and drawing for his neighbours' children for years and loves to read them stories. His little dragon Coconut is one of the best-known children's book characters in Germany. The books about the little fire-breathing dragon have been translated into many languages. His stories about Meerkat Gustav and Eliot and Isabella are also very popular with children. Ingo Siegner is a freelance writer and illustrator and lives in Hanover with his wife.
