Usch Luhn was born in a small village in Austria in 1959. She studied German and journalism in Berlin, and now shares her time between Berlin and the North Sea coast. She teaches at a film academy and sometimes writes film scripts, and has thought up stories for more than fifty books for children and young adults.

Today is Christmas Eve and Nele is very excited. This is the day Father Christmas comes, and on no account does Nele want to miss him. When she looks out of the window Nele catches a glimpse of a red coat. But that is only Daddy clearing the snow. When she sees a pointed red hat going past the window, she rushes to the door. But it is only Great Aunt Adelheid bringing some Christmas biscuits. That evening she hears a little bell ringing. Could that be Father Christmas?
