Ingo Siegner, born in 1965, studied history and French, and spent two years in France as an au pair and as a student. He also trained as a bank clerk. He is an autodidact who always carries his paints with him. He has been writing and drawing for his neighbours' children for years and loves to read them stories. His little dragon Coconut is one of the best-known children's book characters in Germany. The books about the little fire-breathing dragon have been translated into many languages. His stories about Meerkat Gustav and Eliot and Isabella are also very popular with children. Ingo Siegner is a freelance writer and illustrator and lives in Hanover with his wife.

Coconut and his friend Oskar are missing their friend Matilda. For weeks she has been in Africa on this stupid school exchange. So without further ado they decide to visit Matilda. But when they find Matilda's host parents they are greeted by bad news: the little porcupine has been missing without trace for days. Coconut and Oskar waste no time and start a search expedition ...

- Coconut – one of the most popular children's characters
- Eagerly awaited – the 25th fire dragon adventure!
