There are flames blazing in Francesco's pizzeria round the corner. It smells of danger – and a new adventure for the Muscleteers! Hamster Bertram von Backenbart, the two mice Picandou and Pomme de Terre and rat Gruyère immediately get to the scene.

But it is not just the fire that is making our four friends get into a sweat: a delightful lady mouse has just managed to escape the flames and needs their help. The Muscleteers take her home and it is not long before Madame Roquefort has stolen the hearts of the three fellows. There is one thing nobody realises: this lady mouse is a cunning old so-and-so and the friendship of the Muscleteers is going to be put to a tough test.

- A wonderful story about little heroes and big deeds, of courage, loyalty and a huge appetite.

"A story singing the praises of friendship and appealing for tolerance." Buchjournal Kids&Teens
