Nina Blazon, born in 1969 in Koper, Slovenia, studied German language and literature. She loves reading fairytales from other countries, but it is during her journeys of adventure that she finds inspiration for her books. She particularly likes Iceland. Real elves and trolls, the tracks of which Nina Blazon set out to follow, are said to live here between the glaciers and volcanoes. You can find out a lot of what she discovered in Pebble's adventures.

Billy Bock lives and works in Berlin. She is a graduate in communications design and illustrates and designs children's books. She particularly has fun developing her own projects for the senses, from feel-and-stroke books to 3D pop-up books. Every detail is important to her

There is a colourful mixture of all sorts of fairy peoples living in Violet Valley, well protected between rugged mountains. Not always do the river elves and the fire fairies agree about everything, but they throw wild parties and have lots of adventures with the flower fairies and stone elves. They've always had to be especially careful with the sinister night elves ... Or haven't they? The inquisitive little Pebble is determined to find out what these sinister characters are really like.

Luckily Pebble has some friends like flower fairy Liliane and mini-monster Mino, who are at hand with help and advice!

- A glitzy group of faithful friends and a fast-paced race by the river
- Magically charming illustrations by Billy Bock
