

Rights sold to:

China (Dolphin Media), France (Albin Michel), Hungary (Egmont), Italy (Armenia), Russia (FLC)

Ulrike Schweikert, born in 1966, studied geology and journalism. Her first historical novel, The Daughter of the Salt Maker, became a great success. Since then she has made writing her career. Along with her best-selling historical novels, she has written the well-received fantasies The Dragon's Crown and The Legacy of the Copper Dragon as well as the young-adult series Heirs of the Night.

www.ulrike-schweikert.de

Ulrike Schweikert
The Heirs of the Night - Nosferas

[Die Erben der Nacht -
Nosferas]
With jacket flaps and gold tooling

cbt
448 pages
Format 13,5 x 20,6 cm
March 2008

Four very young vampires, a cold-blooded hunter – and a murderous conspiracy in the Eternal City!

By the end of the 19th century, the last remaining six of the vampire clans have spread over the whole of Europe. They are extremely hostile towards one another, but when modern times threaten their species with extinction, there is only one way of ensuring survival: their children, the Heirs of the Night, must be trained together so that each one of them can benefit from the strengths of the other clans ...

The training of the Heirs of the Night begins in Rome. Ivy from Ireland, Malcolm from England, Franz-Leopold from Vienna and Alisa from Germany are to learn from the Italian masters how to become immune to all kinds of Church powers. But murders in the Italian clan are overshadowing their training. There is a mysterious vampire hunter on the prowl. When the four young vampires start tracking him down, they discover a diabolical conspiracy in their own ranks ...