Heike Knauber, born in 1967, used to work in sales of a multinational software development company; now she travels around for a large European industrial company as an interpreter-cum-assistant. While doing all this, she fell in love with fantasy.

Meliaé is the heiress to the throne of the legendary Najaden people – yet she knows nothing of her origin. When two vicious brothers abduct her, Meliaé's death seems inevitable, but then she discovers her dark love for a man who will be taking on the god of the underworld for her sake ...

Heroic fantasy: mystic, exotic, wildly romantic – for all readers of Wédora and The Queen of the Shadows.
