Bernadette von Plesow has had to deal with a lot of things in her life, but the past year has almost broken her. She has been able to protect her glamorous hotel, but not her family: her son Alexander died in a fatal accident, and her sorrow weighs heavily on her, especially because they parted on bad terms. Her daughter Josephine lends her support, but Bernadette finds it hard to dedicate herself body and soul to the hotel. And suddenly there's a man at the door, whom she recognises from an old photograph...

Meanwhile, Bernadette's son Constantin – owner of the disreputable Hotel Astor in Berlin – has his own way of grieving for his brother. He knows that he is to blame for Alexander's death, because the accident was an act of revenge from the head of the Frankfurt underworld. Constantin refuses to let it go, and has come up with an insidious plan to avenge his brother's death – but he's playing with fire...

Downton Abbey on the Baltic – soaked in the atmosphere of the notorious Roaring Twenties.

Oscar-winner Andreas Bareiss is planning a lavish TV adaptation with a first-rate director and cast.
