Even as a child, Nico Sternbaum loved drawing and making up stories. Together with his parents he explored South Africa among other places, and built himself an adventure-tree house in his grandparents' orchard. After finishing school he studied at an arts academy, and today he is a successful illustrator and bestselling author. His books have been highly acclaimed by the media, and translated into other languages (including Chinese). Shake the Apple Tree was a Spiegel bestseller, and several of his books have been promoted and recommended by the German Reading Foundation. Nico Sternbaum lives in Wiesbaden.

This book is full of fun and is for active children. They should shake the book, rock it, thump on it and blow at it from all angles – depending on what needs to be done in each short story. Scratch a dino, for example, rescue a mouse or set a robot going. This is a book packed with surprises and will provide all manner of games, fun and excitement!
