Even as a child, Nico Sternbaum loved drawing and making up stories. Together with his parents he explored South Africa among other places, and built himself an adventure-tree house in his grandparents' orchard. After finishing school he studied at an arts academy, and today he is a successful illustrator and bestselling author. His books have been highly acclaimed by the media, and translated into other languages (including Chinese). Shake the Apple Tree was a Spiegel bestseller, and several of his books have been promoted and recommended by the German Reading Foundation. Nico

The little sleep-well sheep Emil is on his way home. All his friends are already in bed: the fluffy ducklings, the mouse siblings, the red fox, the fawn and the little beaver. Even the wild boar has already fallen asleep. It's about time for Emil now. In the warm stable, his mum and dad wait for him with a story and a goodnight kiss.

The enchanting illustrations by Nico Sternbaum will make this story one of the favourite books for children aged 18 months.

- An enchanting bedtime story in rhymes which can be easily translated – to read out and speak along
- With magical illustrations and a clear imagery
