Walter Moers has with his fantasy novels written his way into the hearts of readers and critics alike far beyond the borders of the German-speaking parts of the world. All his novels, such as The 13 ½ Lives of Captain Bluebear and The City of Dreaming Books, were bestsellers and have been translated into numerous languages. Apart from the continent of Zamonia, Walter Moers has also created such popular characters as Captain Bluebear and the cartoon character Adolf.

Anja Dollinger is a historian and art historian and freelances as a writer and editor.

Millions of readers all over the world have, book by book, been following the heroes of Walter Moers and Optimus Yarnspinner to the fantastic continent of Zamonia, where not only bizarre forms of existence, incredible natural phenomena, fantabulous achievements in art and science abound but also all manner of adventures.

So it is hardly surprising that Zamonia has raised a whole lot of questions. This richly illustrated and lovingly produced encyclopaedic guide gives the answers – in 150 lavishly illustrated articles on Hel and Shark Grub, Orm and Olz, Bookholm and Brummli, Ugglies and Troglotrolls, Netherworld and Hobgoblins.

Press
"For Moers fans an indispensable volume for enhancing their knowledge, and for others a delirious picture book filled with odd diagrams and illustrations for browsing that will pique their curiosity about the Moers universe." Szene Hamburg
